Dear Dr. Eblate Ernest Mjingo,

RE: INVITATION TO BECOME A BOARD MEMBER AND CHAIRPERSON

AN OVERVIEW OF THE ORGANIZATION

Enduata Community Initiative Organization (ECIO) is a registered non-profit and non-governmental organization with registration number 00NGO/R/5022 working to empower marginalized indigenous people and ensure sustainable utilization of natural resources in Tanzania. At ECIO, we believe that change is driven by communities taking ownership of their future and shaping it in their vision.

ECIO work with communities across five program areas which are: Environment and wildlife conservation, community empowerment, education support, Climate change and supporting Children with disabilities (CWD).

With this letter and our website (www.ecio.or.tz) are being offered for your reference for more details about Enduata Community Initiative Organization (ECIO) its activities and goals.

ECIO's mission is to provide quality support for education services, community empowerment programs, and environmental conservation efforts that improve the lives of vulnerable women and children in rural Maasai communities. ECIO envisions being a leading organization that promotes quality standards of living by addressing challenges facing the rural Maasai community in Tanzania

We're currently forming our Board of directors that will serve for the next two years. On behalf of the ECIO team, I'm pleased to invite and request you to consider becoming a member and a Chairperson of the Enduata Community Initiative Organization (ECIO)'s Advisory Board for 2023-2025.

Being a member of ECIO’s Advisory Board provides you with a unique opportunity to:

- Lead a diverse team of national and international members
- Contribute to the success of the organization through advice and by connecting ECIO with other organizations and individuals
- Work with a diverse team of both local and international members
- Make a positive impact on the community and the planet
- Expand your network and meet people with similar philanthropic interests

Enduata Community Initiative Organization (ECIO) is a dynamic organization that needs the support and input of people with your experience and insight.

The main purpose of the ECIO’s Advisory Board is to keep track of the bigger picture of the organization, address issues of concern and possibly develop strategies necessary for the organizational growth.

Advisory board meetings will be held quarterly usually in march, June, September and December in a year and communicate on regular basis via Email. Each meeting will be about two hours in duration.

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter and consider being a part of ECIO’s Advisory Board. As you consider this invitation, I am available to discuss any questions you may have. You can reach me via email at info@ecio.or.tz or we can arrange a zoom meeting for that.

With your leadership experience, vision and commitment to humanity and the planet, we truly believe that we will be able to reach new heights.

Kind regards,

Narau Kimani Laizer
Co-founder and Director
Enduata Community Initiative Organization.
